

MARINE TRADES DAY On the East Bay

The following is a list of supporting community agencies and educational institutions who were instrumental in organizing and implementing the Marine Trades Day. Visit them at 257 Franklin Street for more information.

Rhode Island Marine Trades Association

www.rimta.org

Founded in 1964, the Rhode Marine Trades Association represents all aspects of the marine Industry. Our membership companies and organizations are dedicated to the growth in recreational boating and the creation of jobs for our industry in an environmentally friendly, safe and responsible way. Contact Lisa DiRaimo 401-615-5419.

International Yacht Restoration School

www.iyrs.org

IYRS offers full time certificate programs in Boatbuilding & Restoration, as well as Marine Systems, plus continuing education courses for boatyard employees and serious enthusiasts at facilities in Newport and Bristol. Contact John Freer at 401-848-5777 x203 or jfreer@iyrs.org for more information.

New England Institute of Technology (NE TECH)

www.neit.edu

New England Tech offers Associates Degrees in over 20 different technical areas including Marine Technology. The Marine Program at NEIT offers theory and practical hands on training in marine mechanics, marine business concepts, marine electricity and marine systems installation, repair and service. 800-736-7744.

East Bay Chamber of Commerce

www.eastbaychamberri.org

Dedicated to improving the economic, industrial, professional, cultural and civic welfare by promoting business and community growth and development. 401-245-0750.

Mount Hope Enterprise Zone

An East Bay area the State has designated as economically distressed. The Zone offers a range of incentives to businesses that either create jobs in or relocate to Bristol or Warren. Contact Alan Crisman 401-245-4222.

MOSAICO Community Development Corporation

www.mosaicocdc.info

CDC is working to revitalize our community. Programs include: Marine Trades Job Training Tuition Assistance, designed to provide skills for full-time employment of Low/Mod Bristol applicants; Mentoring for Middle School students; "Sense of Pride" connecting kids to the community; and Storefront Improvements. Contact Jennifer Astrella 401-253-4627.

MY TURN Rhode Island

www.my-turn.org

Founded in 1984, MY TURN is a community based non profit youth development agency working with 14 to 21 year old in and out of school youth who are at a crossroads in their lives. Through funding from Rhode Island Marine Trades Association and the Governor's Workforce Board one of our many goals in Rhode Island is to expand and educate Rhode Islanders about the many opportunities in the state's marine trades industry. Contact Wendy Mackie (888) 828-2488 ext 264.

Rhode Island Economic Development Corporation

www.riedc.com

The Rhode Island Economic Development Corporation is the full service, official economic development organization for the state of Rhode Island. A quasi-public agency, the Corporation serves as a government and community resource to help streamline the business expansion in, and relocation to, Rhode Island. The agency assists companies with commercial real estate, business financing, workforce training and other relevant issues. For inquires please call 401-278-9100.

Motoring Technical Training Institute (MTTI)

www.mtti.edu

Students receive a well rounded education in the overall maintenance and repair of outboards, inboards and stern drives at facilities in East Providence, RI. Students have the opportunity to gain additional work related experience as they complete their internships.

Email: info@mtti.edu or call 866-454-6884.